

Violators Get Sting of Blockade

by Dave Thomas
Daily Universe Reporter

Police blockade at four locations surrounding the Brigham Young University campus Friday almost 200 Y students to City Court this week.

LICE WERE looking for those who did not have Utah licenses and non-resident permits. A total of 295 tickets of them to non-students were issued, according to Chief Jesse Evans.

Many of the students who received citations for not having operator's licenses had their dismissals by Judge Joseph Meservy.

REASON FOR the dismissals that many of the students not been in the state longer the 60 day deadline for obtaining the licenses.

Students found that a time was no excuse for not having a non-resident permit the were looking for. The shows students who intend return home at the end of the year to obtain non-resident permits in lieu of Utah licenses.

GRACE period is allowed, Judge Meservy levied fines of $10 on the permit violators. Tuesday the fine was set to $1.

FUNDS OF $150 will be set to the Monday court case who will go to 311, City County Bldg. to collect.

Obtain a non-resident permit a student must obtain a certificate from the BYU Registrar stating that he is an active student and present the certificate to the Utah State Tax mission in 102 City and County Bldg. A non-resident permit will then be issued without fee.

STUDENTS MAY apply for Utah operator's license in City and County Bldg. The fee is $2.

GRIM FACES — Almost 200 Brigham Young University victims of a Friday Provo police blockade found themselves in city court this week. Students who had not obtained Utah driver's licenses and non-resident permits were given citations —invitations to appear before Judge Joseph R. Meservy. Note: students may apply for a Utah operator's license at 101 City and County Bldg. for $2.

'Merry Wives' Opera Opens Tonight

by Karla Berrett
Daily Universe Reporter

Cast in the title roles, "The Merry Wives of Windsor," are alternate stars, Nancy Empey and Colleen Redford as Alice Ford and Diane Heder, with Suzanne Harris as Meg Page.

These merry women attempt to teach a lesson to Sir John Falstaff, Ralph Woodward, who has sent a love letter to Mrs. Ford. At the same time, they wish to cure Mr. Ford of his insane jealousy.

THE CUNNING and devious means employed by the women include plugging the fat and unattractive Falstaff into the Thames River. In another scene, Falstaff, disguised as an old woman, is beaten mercilessly by Mr. Ford.

Violence, however, is the exception rather than the rule during the opera. The daughter of the Fords, Anne, is being torn between two lovers urged upon her by her parents respectively, while she herself prefers a third young man. This plot is developed into a jolly climax toward the end when all characters, including the villagers, meet in Windsor Forest for a masquerade. The plots and counter plots join together for a riotous climax.

OTHERS OF the cast are Mr. Page, Ken Wilks and Richard Justis; Kenton, Dick Dasturp and Jim Peterson; Slender, Richard Brimhall and John Herbst; Dr. Cajus, Brent Shaw, Playing Mr. Ford are the alternates Roy Samuelson and Boyd Hancock.

The operatic production will run Nov. 16-19 at the Smith Auditorium. Curtain time is 8:15 p.m.

Officials Claim Cuban Support Of Rebel Show

by Mario Ribas Montes
United Press International

GUATEMALA CITY, Nov. 16 —Angry Guatemalan leaders are threatening retaliation—perhaps including a declaration of war—against Cuba for its alleged support of this week's uprising in Guatemala.

"We know (the rebels) are receiving aid, including planes from Cuba," President Miguel Ydigoras Fuentes said in a speech yesterday in the recaptured town of Zacapa. "We are ready to defend ourselves, and to attack anyone who attacks us."

MANUEL ORELLANA, whose anti-communist party holds about one-sixth of the seats in Congress, said he and his supporters would call for a declaration of war on Cuba if its support of the anti-government attack can be proved.

At Orellana's request, Congress asked Foreign Minister Jesus Unda Murillo to report to a secret session of the national legislature on the government's proof of Cuban support of the revolt.

SCREAMING WOMEN—The cunning and devious means employed by these merry wives to teach Sir John Falstaff a lesson make some riotous entertainment in the operatic version of Shakespeare's "The Merry Wives of Windsor," which will play through Saturday.

BYU Gets Yugoslavia's Loss: Missile Research Generator

Yugoslavia's loss became Brigham Young University's gain recently when BYU, with the help of Sen. Wallace F. Bennett (R-Utah) outranked Yugoslavia and acquired a generator previously designated to be shipped to that country.

WHEN BYU officials first tried, and failed, to get the surplus 300 kilowatt generator from

Who Won California? Still in Air

SACRAMENTO, Calif., Nov. 16 (UPI)—Vote-heavy Los Angeles will decide today whether President-Elect Kennedy or Vice President Richard M. Nixon won California in the Nov. 8 election.

The big Southern California metropolises started counting its absentee ballots today as Nixon crept to within 14,000 votes of taking the state away from Kennedy.

THE OVERALL statewide totals were: Kennedy 3,168,141, Nixon 3,153,858.

When the regular vote counting ended last week, Kennedy had the state by a narrow 33,455 votes, according to the United Press International tally, and by 35,193 votes on the Secretary of State's semi-official tally.

BASED ON an estimated 250,000 absentee votes expected, mathematicians figured Nixon needed 57.7 per cent of the absentee votes to overcome Kennedy's lead.

With half of the absentees counted, all outside of Los Angeles, Nixon had 68,138 of the absentee votes to Kennedy's 46,720 votes—or 59.32 per cent.

NIXON HAD gained 21,318 votes, according to the UPI figures. Bennett trails Kennedy by 14,037 votes with the absentee tally completed in 23 of the 58 counties and partial tallies from 23 others.

Los Angeles, which has 35 per cent of the state's absentee vote, went to Kennedy by 42,547 votes in the regular counting—a narrow margin compared to the county's total vote of 2.6 million.

THE ABSENTEE vote of two strong Republican counties—Orange and San Diego—also was largely outstanding.

The outcome of the neck-and-neck battle in California cannot change Kennedy's national victory, however, unless there are changes in other states.

END DRIVE—"I know it's in here somewhere!" says self-organized Mary Jacobs, searching for a class fund contribution. Patiently waiting are junior Kirk Evans and senior president Bruce Gibbs. Class contributions are being collected this week.

KEEP OFF THE GRASS—Sue Bailey is helping Morris Slack observe the Junior AMS "Keep off the Grass" campaign while Cliff Mayfield looks on with an approving eye. Purpose of the campaign is to preserve the lawn that is being trampled to death in certain areas on campus.

Mechanics Defy Court Order

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 16 (UPI)—Hundreds of mechanics defied a court order early today to begin a strike against the Metropolitan Transit Authority (MTA) that threatened to cripple most of the public transportation in Los Angeles and vicinity.

Strikers faced possible contempt citations, but police had no immediate plans to make arrests barring additional instructions from the court.

The MTA provides service for some 750,000 passengers daily in four counties—Los Angeles, Riverside, Orange and San Bernardino. It appeared early last night extension of a month-old temporary restraining order would block the strike.

Unbeaten Missouri Tops Poll

NEW YORK, Nov. 15 (UPI)—Missouri needing only a win this Saturday to complete a perfect season, seized the No. 1 spot in the weekly major college football ratings by the United Press International board of coaches today as the field went into the home stretch.

COACH DAN Devine's Tigers ran their record to 9-0 last Saturday by crushing Oklahoma, 41-19, and thus were in position to grab the top ranking when it slipped from the hands of Minnesota—a 23-14 loser to Purdue.

Missouri now needs only to beat Kansas this Saturday to finish its perfect season, clinch the Big Eight championship and earn a trip to the Orange Bowl for the second straight year.

MISSISSIPPI, unbeaten but tied once in nine games, moved up to take over the No. 2 spot vacated by Missouri while Iowa, which sank from first to sixth last week after its loss to Minnesota, rebounded back as far as No. 3 this week.

Ohio State, third last week, took a 35-12 beating from Iowa and that set the stage for a general advance by other teams. Minnesota dropped from first to fourth and Washington held steady at No. 5, but after that Duke took sixth, Navy seventh, and Arkansas eighth in advances. Ohio State fell to No. 9 and Auburn crashed into the elite group at No. 10.

OF THE 35 FAMOUS coaches who comprise the UPI board—five from each of the seven geographical sections of the nation —22 selected Missouri for first place. Devine's Tigers also received seven votes for second, one for third, two fourths two fifths, and one eighth. All told, their point total was 320—a far cry from the record 347 posted by Minnesota last week but a 36-point margin over runner-up Ole Miss.

Of the 13 first-place votes missed by Missouri, Mississippi bagged five, Iowa four, Minnesota two, and Duke and Navy one each.

U.C.L.A. advanced to the second 10 in the No. 11 slot, followed by Michigan State, Kansas, Rice, and Baylor. Utah State and Alabama were tied for 16th, Florida and Yale tied for 18th, and Pittsburgh and New Mexico State tied for 20th.

Missouri must hold onto the No. 1 berth for two more weeks in order to gain the national championship. The final weekly ratings for the 1960 season will be compiled after games of Nov. 26. An ominous note—Missouri is the fifth team to lead the ratings this season, following Syracuse, Mississippi, Iowa, and Minnesota.

EACH WEEK each member of the UPI board picks the top 10 teams in the nation. The coaches'...
